

Highlights & Substantive Issues

- # Presented and discussed work to date on ISO 17025 integration (ISO 17025 Subcommittee)
- # Participants want standard consistent with ISO 17025, language in NELAC Standard organized to follow ISO17025
- # Presented draft language developed by PBMS subcommittee (PBMS Subcommittee)
- # Discussed proposed language for D1 and made refinements based on comments/wording from floor
- # Presented and discussed work to date on developing asbestos testing Appendix.

New language for 5.14.b1 Subcontracting

Quality Systems
Scott Siders, Chair

Highlights & Substantive Issues (Cont.)

- # Discussed proposed language for D.3 and made changes based on floor comments

Unresolved Issues

Action by

- | | | |
|----------|--|------------|
| # | Address issue of how to demonstrate if a new or reconditioned instrument is operationally capable of meeting test method requirements. | Sept. 2001 |
|----------|--|------------|

Future Plans

Action by

- | | | |
|---|--|-----------|
| # | Finish integration of ISO 17025 and PBMS language in Chapter 5 | Oct. 2001 |
| # | Finish Asbestos Testing Appendix | Oct. 2001 |
| # | Obtain further direction on ISO 17025 integration and PBMS from Board of Directors | As Needed |
| # | Solicit NELAC stakeholder ISO 17025, PBMS, and Asbestos drafts prior to NELAC 7i | As Needed |

Seventh NELAC Annual Meeting
May 22 - 25, 2001

Quality Systems
Scott Siders, Chair

Voting Agenda

- # All 5.0-5.16, D2 and D5
- # D.1 Independent vote (implement immediately)
- # D.3 Independent vote (implement immediately)